Dear Doctor

DATA PROTECTION CONSENT FORM

In order to comply with the new General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) rules, which came into effect on 25th May 2018, we need you to confirm that you understand that your personal data is stored securely and is kept in line with the new data retention rules. When you visit the Derby GP Training Office for the first time we will ask you to sign the Data Protection Consent Form stored in the Office.

Where appropriate this information may be shared with those who have a responsibility with the organisation and delivery of training, to help them execute their function in the planning and delivery of specialist training.

Yours sincerely

Viv
